

GLIDDEN NEWSLETTER

December 2012

City of Glidden

Glidden Winter Wonderland

Come join the fun Thursday, December 6th, 2012 from 5:00-7:00 pm. Several main street businesses will hold open houses that evening. The library will be holding activities for children Pre K-6th grade. Santa will be at the library to greet the children. The Glidden swim team will be serving a soup supper at the American Legion from 4:00-8:00pm. A bake sale sponsored by Glidden Ralston sophomore class will be in the Community Meeting Room. The Glidden-Ralston High School Chorus will be downtown to entertain with holiday songs. Old fashioned horse and buggy rides will be provided as well starting at the fire station. Make sure to bring your homemade gingerbread house to the library on December 3. Homemade gingerbread houses will be on display at the library from December 3-7th. Residents can participate in home outdoor lighting contest. Judging will take place before December 6th. Children's coloring contest will be available in the Glidden Graphic. Prizes will be awarded for all three contests!

Snow Policy Regarding Vehicles

All motor vehicles and vehicles of any kind shall be removed from the streets (other than in the commercial districts), during any time when snow removal operations are in progress and before such operations have resumed in the removal or clearance of snow from the City streets. Snow removal shall include the action of any and all snow equipment necessary to remove snow from City streets to provide access and proper use of said streets. The vehicles shall be removed and not left standing or parked on the streets in order to facilitate snow removal. The owners of vehicles left standing or parked in violation of this section may be issued a civil citation.

Holiday Closing

City office, maintenance shop & library will close Monday, December 24th and Tuesday, December 25th for the holiday. The City office, maintenance shop & Library will also be closed on Tuesday, Jan. 1st for the New Year.

“Ike”

Come meet Ike! Ike is a K9 officer in the Carroll County Sheriff department. Ike is trained to detect drugs, track lost or missing persons, perform building searches and apprehend criminals. Ike will be coming to Glidden on Thursday, December 13th to the Glidden Public Library from 12:45-1:30. Everyone is welcome to come see Ike.

Project Share

Applications for a $50 grant of Project Share funds are available at the City Office. Applications for funds may be made once per winter heating season. Funds are available to qualifying applicants until depleted.